FROM OUR PRESIDENT - Marybeth Richardson

Henny Penny cried the sky is falling, but we all know that it is just leaves.....lots and lots of leaves! I think we were so lucky this year because the leaves hung on much longer than last year and the colors were gorgeous. Ah! Fall in Wyoming is the best.

We all received the minutes from the YQF wrap up meeting and you can see we have a little bit of unfinished business to decide. At the Guild meeting we will vote to decide if we are going forth with a quilt show next year (2019) or skip a year and we will pick a theme. These two decisions must be made so the show can be included in early publicity and reservations made for the building, poles and drapes.

I did not receive word from one volunteer (needed two) to serve on the nomination committee after my plea was sent a few weeks ago. I am a little flummoxed about what to do. Elections should take place in November. Three members have volunteered to serve in the position of Treasurer, Vice President and President again - unless someone else would like to do one of these jobs. So that leaves Secretary. Jeannie Dykus cannot do this job next year but is willing to walk the new person thru all what she does. I am trying to think of ways to simplify this position by assigning some of the matters to others and pairing the duties down to just taking minutes, preparing the minutes and submitting them to the newsletter chairperson and keeping the records of all correspondence received. If that is done, is there anyone among our 55 members who will step up and be Secretary for 2019? Please contact me marybethrch2017@gmail.com or 754-5399.

We are still hearing good compliments on the reception and the quilt show. It was a good show, wasn't it!

Hope to see you all at the Oct meeting.....remember to bring Show and Tell. Keep your needle threaded, Marybeth

HAPPY BIRTHDAY! Marybeth acknowledged the gals with SEPTEMBER birthdays!

SECRETARY'S MINUTES: A motion was made and seconded to accept the AUGUST 2018 Meeting Minutes as recorded in the Newsletter.

TREASURER'S REPORT: The Treasurer's Report was accepted as recorded in the Newsletter. A reminder to anyone with a bill for reimbursement, to see Lili.

OLD BUSINESS:

SOUP & SEW & STITCH: Ann Trosper informed us that she has reserved the Weed and Pest Building for Saturday, Oct 13th for another Soup, Sew and Stitch day for sharing time with fellow quilt members and getting some projects started and/or finished or just socializing! If interested, please let Ann know.

SUNSHINE COMMITTEE: To request a card be sent out, i.e. Get Well, Congratulations, or Encouragement, call Betty Cunningham @ 307-587-3358 or email her @ bettyc2203@icloud.com

SERVICE COMMITTEE/COMMUNITY QUILTS PROJECT: Barbara Harrison shared some thank you cards from veterans that have received one of our veteran quilts. It is estimated that we have donated 153 quilts! Great Job!

Betty Cunningham mentioned that more baby blankets are needed for the police cars.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE: Ben Engelhardt is our chairperson for the Social Committee. Thank you this month to Barbara Pike for bringing in all the goodies to share with us as a way of wrapping up the YQF Meetings for 2018. It was all appreciated! and devoured!

SHOW AND TELL: We always look forward to this part of our meeting when we can see all the beautiful quilts and/or projects that our Members are working on. Thank you Ladies for sharing! and being an inspiration to the rest of us!

EVENING PROGRAM: Sue Hanson presented a program on french braid trees and Sue Collier presented a program on paper piecing trees. Then we all gathered together to see some of the new items/notions and patterns that are available. Thank you ladies!

NEW BUSINESS: Sue Collier will be having 2 days of classes at the Big Sky Retreat held 14-15-16 March 2019. So mark your calendars!

The Senior Center asked if we could come up with seasonal covers for the back of the piano, since it is exposed on the stage. It was suggested we do blocks of various seasons at perhaps a Soup, Sew & Stitch OR a Block of the Month technique. We will discuss this further at our October Meeting.

It is time to elect officers again. Lili has agreed to be Treasurer again, Barbara Pike has agreed to be Vice President again, and Marybeth Richardson will agree to be President again, if no one else wants to accept the challenge! A nominating committee will be selected for finding nominees for Secretary since Jeanne has decided to take a break. Anyone interested let Marybeth or the elected nominating committee know.

OTHER BUSINESS: We had our YQF Wrap-Up Meeting at 5:00pm prior to our regular PPQG Meeting at 6:00pm. The Quilt Show proved to be a success and now comes the decision of whether to have it again in 2019 or wait until 2020?

Also mentioned is the little quilt show at the Northwest College called "Picturing Paradise". It is at the Orendorff Building on 6th Street from 8a-5p, Monday thru Friday. The show comes down October 15th.

The Meeting was adjourned.

OPPORTUNITIES for fun and INTERESTING STUFF

VETERANS QUILTS - Block-of-the-Month will resume now that the Quilt Show is over. Thank you Barbara H for reading the Thank-You letters from the Vets who recently received quilts from PPQG. It is nice to hear how well our Community Service Project is received and appreciated by those local veterans who served our country.

Thank you to Dianna Baker for help making up Vet quilt kits, and to all guild members for sewing blocks together for this on-going project. Thank you also to the long-arm quilters who volunteer their time to quilt the Vet quilts.
